MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Little Symphony, composed of UM students and local high school students, will present a free public concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15, in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The concert, sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music, will be under the direction of Dr. David Avshalomov, assistant professor of music at UM, who is acting conductor of the little symphony. Frank Diliberto, the regular conductor/music director, who is on one quarter's leave from the UM music faculty, is playing string bass with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra fall quarter.

Works to be presented by the 38-member Montana Little Symphony Tuesday include "Don Quixote Suite" by George Phillip Telemann; "Roumanian Folk Dances" by Bela Bartok, and "Symphony No. 2 (B-flat Major)" by Franz Schubert.

UM students who are members of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music honorary are in charge of stage managing the evening music recitals at the University as a continuing service project.
